GATHERING

*GREETING AND CALL TO WORSHIP

(PSALM 71)

L: You are our hope, O Lord,

P: and our trust from our youth.

L: We have leaned on you from our birth;

it was you who took us from our mother's womb.

P: We constantly praise your name with everyday you give us.

L: Our mouths are filled with your praise, and with your glory all day long.

P: Do not forget us in our old age Lord; do not forsake us when our strength is spent.

L: We will put our hope in you constantly, and will praise you more and more.

P: From our youth you have taught us, and we still proclaim your wondrous acts.

L: Young or old, our hearts are the same – alive in this hour of worship!

THE INVITATION

CONFESSION AND PARDON (RESPONSIVE):

L: Creator God, you have equipped each of us with gifts and given us a place in your body. Too often we do not see our own worth or the worth of those around us with your eyes.

P: Lord, help us to see.

L: God, in your presence we see ourselves as we truly are: disconnected from one another and disconnected from the fullness you offer us. Too often we take the gifts and passions you give us and set them aside in pursuit of our own plans or for our own comfort.

P: Lord, reveal your heart within us.

L: Forgive us, God, for the brokenness we have brought to your body. Help us, young and old, variously gifted and fashioned to bring you glory, to restore fullness to our own lives and to connect our gifts with those of our neighbor.

P: Lord, bring healing to this body. Make us whole. Amen.

– (please take a moment to offer prayers of confession to God in silence) –

Words of Assurance:

L: In Christ you are made free, and your heart is new. You are the body of Christ.

ALL: In Christ we are made free, and our hearts are made brand new by his love. We are the body of Christ! Thanks be to God! Amen.
