Experience the freedom of Christ in every area of your life—will cover the Fruits of the Spirit

Trustworthy by Lysa Terkeurst

When hard times come and it seems God is deviating from the plan we assume our life should follow, we're more likely to want to tame God, not trust Him. It's then that we begin to press into our ways and our own timing. No human can carry the weight of being their own god, but so many of us try. In this 6-session study of 1 & 2 Kings, join Lysa TerKeurst in Israel as she honestly reveals the places of distrust in her own heart while exploring the deeply applicable Scriptures that will teach us how to truly trust God.

Facilitators—Robin Andrews and Cindy Graham
Begins February 8, 6:15pm

The South Carolina United Methodist Church has offered churches a path to “a faithful step forward”, to ensure congregations are equipped to make decisions that enable them to best live into their disciple-making mission. South Carolina Conference leaders have adopted a process through which a local church can discern whether it will continue in ministry within The United Methodist Church or separate from the denomination.

The Local Church Discernment Process is designed to help local churches determine whether they can function as a United Methodist church if they firmly believe that the denomination has not consistently upheld its stated doctrine on issues of human sexuality. It will provide an opportunity for church members to engage in dialogue, to allow every voice in the congregation an opportunity to be heard, and to discern the congregation’s sentiment regarding separation. The new process is distinct from the disaffiliation pathway created when the 2019 General Conference added Paragraph 2553 (click to read) to The UMC Book of Discipline.

In South Carolina, no local church that has inquired about disaffiliation from The United Methodist Church has qualified under this provision, since they do not profess to disagree with the human sexuality language in the Book of Discipline or how the South Carolina Conference has interpreted it. “It has been my hope that the division so present in the rest of the denomination would not affect us in a negative way,” said

Bishop L. Jonathan Holston. “But it has become increasingly difficult over time to shield South Carolina United Methodists from these distractions. “There are a growing number of churches in our conference inquiring about a way to leave the denomination, especially since disaffiliation under Paragraph 2553 is not available to them. While this is a source of real sadness, I have concluded that providing churches the space for conversation and discernment is a faithful step forward within the provisions of The Book of Discipline.”

The Trustees of the Annual Conference and the Extended Cabinet have prayerfully developed the Local Church Discernment Process. Their intentional and meticulous work is not intended to encourage churches to leave the denomination or to remain with The United Methodist Church. Rather, it was designed with the singular goal of ensuring that churches will be fruitful in their mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. While similar to the disaffiliation process found in Paragraph 2553, the Local Church Discernment Process is grounded in Paragraph 2549 of the Discipline, (click to read) which is typically employed when a local church is closed because it no longer serves the purpose for which it was organized. Unlike the disaffiliation process, the Local Church Discernment Process has no long-term “sunset” provision.

The process consists of multiple steps, including but not limited to:

- 1) If the church council of a local church determines that it is in the best interest of the church to allow the congregation to pursue separation, the council must ask the district superintendent to call a church conference.
- 2) Before the church conference takes place, the local church must complete an intentional, 30-day process of discernment to consider whether the congregation can continue to function as a United Methodist church.
- 3) Representatives of the congregation will be assigned the responsibility of ensuring that certain financial obligations – as calculated by conference trustees – are satisfied before the congregation can vote on whether to separate. These payments include:
 - A tithe equal to 10 percent of the appraised value of all church property and liquid assets.
 - All unpaid apportionment giving for the prior year, as well as for the year of closure up to the date of the Annual Conference vote to close the church.
 - An additional 12 months of apportionment giving.
 - All unpaid salary and benefits due to clergy appointed to the church.
 - A withdrawal liability equal to the church’s proportional share of any unfunded pension obligations.
- 4) Other financial considerations and legal liabilities of the local church – such as the disposition of any debts, loans, leases, endowments, foundations and cemeteries – must be satisfied or transferred to a new entity.

- 5) At the church conference meeting, support of two-thirds of professing church members present and voting is required to formally declare that the church can no longer continue to function as a United Methodist church. This vote must take place by March 1 each year to be considered by Annual Conference members during their regular session the following June.
- 6) Once all terms of separation are satisfied, the members of the Annual Conference must vote on a resolution to close the local church and transfer its assets to a new entity. A simple majority vote in favor of the resolution is the final step before the local church separates from The United Methodist Church, maintaining its property.

All inquiries about the Local Church Discernment Process must be communicated by the church council to the district superintendent.

Bishop Holston continues to implore South Carolina United Methodists to remain patient and focused on what should be the top priority of every local church – our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. “During this time of discernment, I am encouraging everyone to pray for our church and for each other, to trust in the Lord with all your heart and not lean only on your own understanding,” Bishop Holston said. “Amid all of the distractions the world casts across our path, let us seek a more excellent way to focus on what matters most – trusting, believing and knowing that God is with us.”

Regardless of what the future of Lexington United Methodist Church may be, I am grateful to be worshipping with you as your pastor. You have continued blessing the community as hands and feet of Jesus Christ, and I look forward to our fellowship together.

God bless you all,

Mack McDowell

So What Is Shrove Tuesday?

Shrove Tuesday is the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, which is the first day of Lent. It's a day of penitence, to clean the soul, and a day of celebration as the last chance to feast before Lent begins. But there's more to Shrove Tuesday than pigging out on pancakes. The pancakes themselves are part of an ancient custom with deeply religious roots.

Shrove Tuesday is the last chance to indulge yourself, and to use up the foods that may be given up during Lent. Giving up foods: but not wasting them: The need to eat up the fats gave rise to the French name Mardi Gras; meaning fat Tuesday. Pancakes became associated with Shrove Tuesday as they were a dish that could use up all the eggs, fats and milk in the house with just the addition of flour.

The ingredients for pancakes can be seen to symbolize four points of significance at this time of year: Eggs ~ Creation; Flour ~ The staff of life; Salt ~ Wholesomeness; Milk ~ Purity

Mission Team

Mission Opportunity – Are you interested in serving at a mission site? LUMC volunteers will spend the week of March 5-10 as part of a mission team working with the NC Baptist Disaster Rebuild project in Lumberton, NC. This ministry is repairing and rebuilding homes damaged or destroyed by hurricanes in the Lumberton area.

In most cases new homes are being built in non-flood zones. The actual work to be done this year hasn't been determined, but could include pouring footings, framing a house, shingling a roof, adding siding and painting. The cost for the week is $100, which covers housing and meals for the week. The accommodations are excellent. Contact Mike Morrison (803-727-7360) or Terrie Morrison (803-727-7256) if you are interested in going or for more information.
