Blessings to you, brothers and sisters in Christ at Lexington United Methodist Church! You are a community of great faith and hope, and I continue to enjoy being with you all! God has blessed your church in many ways. Recently some newer attendees asked me a few questions about the Apostles' Creed that we share each Sunday in our traditional services. We say, every week, that we believe in the holy catholic church. Note that "catholic" is lowercase. We mean the entire church of Christians throughout the world, not just one group. The entire body of believers made holy by Christ's sacrifice in our place on the cross, that entire body is sent by Christ into the world. All Christians, we mean, are called into being and gathered by God through the redeeming and reconciling acts of God through Jesus Christ. We see this clearly in the inerrant Word of God's scripture, in 1 Peter 2:9-10, "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy."

One of our challenges in the times of our church today, is to maintain our distinctive identity as God's people, and one of those attributes we now possess, thanks be to God, is mercy. Let us share that mercy with everyone we meet this month and beyond. As we prepare to share Holy Communion service together in all our services at the beginning of this month, let us continue to be a unique chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession that declare with great joy the praises of Him who called us all out of the darkness, and into the wonderful light of Jesus Christ. May God continue to bless you with as a vibrant congregation full of willing volunteers, with great outreach programs, and generous hearts for all of God's people.

God bless you all,
Mack McDowell

Evacuation Bags

It's hurricane season—and those along the coast often have to leave their homes for safer grounds. This is especially hard on senior citizens who live in a residential home.

On the LUMC Youth 2023 summer mission trip our LUMC youth worked at The Palms Retirement Community in Mt. Pleasant.

One need they learned about was for each resident to have an Evacuation Bag that can be packed up at a moments notice.

On Sunday September 17 during the Children/Youth meeting time, they will be packing evacuation bags to send to the residents of The Palms.

Native American Elder Baskets

The Outreach Committee is asking for your help in filling boxes for elder Native Americans. The boxes will be placed outside Pastor Mac's Office on September 1. We will collect until September 30. The items in the boxes will be delivered to the Native Americans in October.

Many Native Americans suffer from food insecurity (hunger) and lack of healthy food access. With the increase in prices of food and personal care products over the last year the need for help continues. Please consider helping with this situation by placing some of the following items in the boxes. Money may also be donated which will be used to buy Walmart gift cards.

These cards will be used by the SCUMC Native American Committee to purchase items needed to complete the boxes.

Lahaina United Methodist Church
Maui, Hawaii

Many United Methodist congregations and some conferences have made special fundraising appeals for Maui, reflecting the severity of the overall situation — and the fact that Lahaina United Methodist Church's sanctuary and the homes of most members were lost to the fires.

UMCOR, which has made an initial $10,000 solidarity grant for work on Maui, also commented on the rush of donations: “UMCOR is grateful for the ways in which individuals, churches and conferences have shared updates and collected offerings within their communities in the aftermath of the Maui wildfires,” said Katherine (Katie) Hills Uzoka, director of international disaster response. “The funds will allow UMCOR to continue supporting local response and recovery efforts.”

Getting overall totals for giving to the United Methodist Committee on Relief and the California-Pacific

Conference's targeted efforts for Maui will take a while, but the early United Methodist response has lifted the spirits of Pastor John Crewe, who leads the Lahaina church. “It's given me the assurance that we'll be able to rebuild,” he said, noting that his church has already received more than $75,000 in relief and recovery donations
