All Saints Day is observed on November 1, after All Hallows Eve. We are celebrating on the first Sunday in November—November 5.

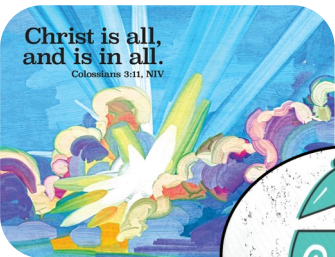

The founder of the Methodist movement, John Wesley, loved All Saints Day. We will take this day and let it stand alone as a celebration of the church that was, the church that is, and the church that will be.

There are those from among us who need to be acknowledged, to be remembered. And yes, there is grief in the recognition of death, but there is also joy in the promise of eternity and the gratitude for the legacy that remains. On this day, we proclaim that we are who we are because of those who have gone before. And, we also give thanks for the saints who are still with us; This day is a celebration of the life and ministry of the church. We also hold out hope for the vision of the church to be, the church of every nation, all tribes and peoples. It is a celebration of community.

“Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s”

Matthew 22:21b

In a box of stuff that I have collected over the years, lies a Roman silver denarius coin from the first century, that came from Israel many years ago. A silver denarius was the equivalent of one day’s pay in ancient times, so it was a valuable coin to have! The obverse (front) of the coin bears the side profile of Julius Caesar. On the reverse is the scene of a soldier standing over two bound captives, with the title “Caesar” across the width of the base. The coin has a hole drilled in the top from where someone apparently once felt compelled to wear it close to their heart on a necklace.

I wonder if the person who had the hole drilled in the coin did so because they wanted to wear it and always remember what Jesus did with Caesar’s denarius in Matthew’s 22nd chapter.

The Herodians and the Pharisees joined together to trap Jesus so he could be arrested for either sedition or encouraging tax evasion. When they asked Jesus if it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, he simply asked them to produce the denarius, asked them whose image and title it bore, and then told them to “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”

We take this to mean that because the coin was made in Caesar’s image, it is right to use it for Caesar’s purposes. But what about you? Whose image were you created in? You were created in God’s image. Every person reading these words right now, was created by our awesome and loving God in God’s image. Given that, do you give yourself to be used for God’s purposes? Do you give the very best of your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service, and your witness, to God? Sometimes this passage is only interpreted to mean that we should tithe our money to God.

We certainly should tithe, because Lexington United Methodist Church uses your financial gifts to bless those in need, every day of the year. This passage from Jesus is about more than that, though. It is about you and I giving the very best of ourselves off the top to God first. It is about putting God first in every aspect of our lives. Scripture is filled with references to giving the “first fruits” of the harvest back to God before anything else is taken. Do you do that with the gifts that God gives you? One way of helping your church do that for the community is to tithe 10% of your disposable income to your church.

In a few weeks, you will receive a pledge card from LUMC asking how much you can pledge to tithe for the coming year 2024. As your pastor, I have continued to tithe at least 10% of my income, both my church salary and my Army pension, to your church. I keep the other 90% for the things I need to do with my family. I am comforted to know that God can do much more with the 10% than with the 90%. When you get your pledge card, it is not required for you to sign your name in the space allocated, before you return it to us. You know what you have contracted with the Lord, and that is good enough.

We are grateful for all that you return to the church, from what God has blessed you with. So much is done with what you give, including ministries for the marginalized and hungry, counseling for those who have lost their way, help for struggling families, support for world-wide ministries and missions, multiple weekly worship services, children’s and youth activities, and community events in your church. The list goes on and on. All of these are possible because you, who are created in God’s beautiful image, are willing to be used for God’s purposes. Thanks be to God!

Mack McDowell

We have a new refrigerator in the front kitchen. The old one stopped cooling and the decision was made to replace the 17 year old appliance. Thanks Trustees for watching out for our church property.

And, in trying to reduce clutter on the coffee/tea making counter all of the platters, trays, containers that have been left at church are now on the counter in the “back” kitchen. If you are looking for one of these items, please look in the back. If you are leaving one of these items for someone to pick up, please put it on the counter in the back kitchen with a name on it, and let that person know that it is there to pick up.

Please extend a warm LUMC welcome to these families:

Caring Connections is a committee that has been a part of LUMC for many years. The members of this committee send get well cards, sympathy cards, cheer cards, and military cards among others. We keep an updated list of names of shut-ins and those living in assisted living, in addition to those who have lost loved ones and those serving in the military. These cards mean so much to those who receive them. If you have a loved one who you would like for us to put on our card list, please email their name and address to Sandra Brabham at ssbrabham@icloud.com.

Thank you all for your prayers, hugs, flowers & cards for my mother’s passing on Sept. 30. I truly am blessed to have such a wonderful and caring church family like you in my life.

Many thanks to all of you who participated in making this project a success. All of your donations of items, funds, and time are greatly appreciated!! We are doing our small part to put smiles on the faces of the many children on 'the other side of the box.' It is more important than ever to share our love with children in the 150 countries around the world that receive Shoeboxes from our country. This ministry helps to show the Love of Christ in the dark days being faced in many parts of the world today.

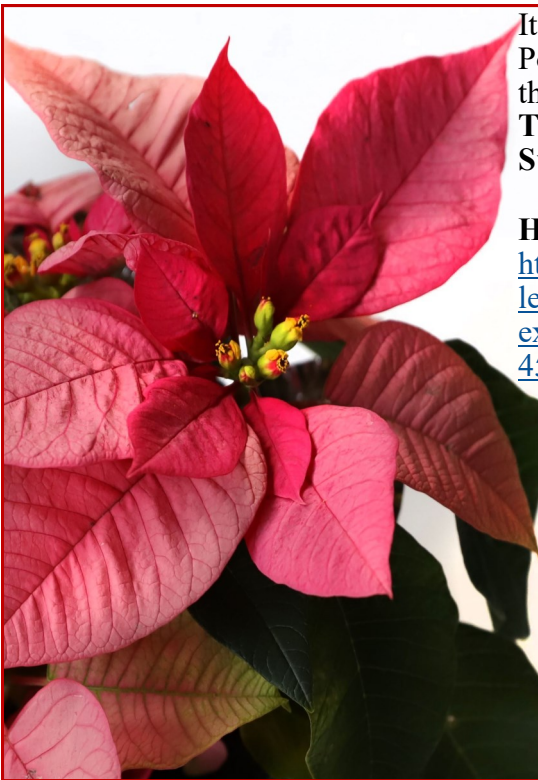

Thanks to the children who helped pack the shoeboxes!

How can we re-orient ourselves towards longing this Advent?

One of the ways we reflect on Advent in communal worship is by utilizing an Advent wreath--a simple wreath surrounding four exterior candles and one central candle. The four exterior candles represent the hallmarks of a renewed creation: joy, hope, peace and love. The central candle represents the presence of Christ. Each Sunday, one more of the exterior candles is lit. Finally, the Christ candle is lit as a reminder of Christ's ongoing presence. We can bring this practice home, creating our own Advent wreaths and contemplating our own longings for more joy, hope, peace and love.

Devotionals present weekly or daily opportunities to focus on a topic. Our friends at UpperRoom.org offer a free daily devotional that is Advent-focused during this season. CommonPrayer.net. It offers daily prayers speaking into our Advent expectations during

Living God's Word, Sharing God's Love

It has been my joy and privilege to put together and edit our church newsletter each month for many years. It is a vital link of information from our church for our staff, our mission connections and our programs. You need to take time to read what is happening in your church. Email and social media cannot detail what is happening in your household of faith. This newsletter does just that.

Kaitlyn Handell will be taking over the responsibility of producing the newsletter beginning in January. She brings her expertise and knowledge and will continue to produce a great pipeline of information for you. Her email is: obrien.kaitlynm@gmail.com. Please be sure to share with her all information that is happening in the church!

Did you pick up a Christmas Jar to fill and give away during Advent time?

This is a reminder that you should be filling your jar with coins and bills so you can give it away.

During the weeks before Christmas carefully select someone to give it to anonymously.

Remember, you are giving the jar away—don't bring it to church—give the gift away, from your heart!
