Household of Faith

Living God's Word, Sharing God's Love

A Word from Pastor Mack

Blessings to you, brothers and sisters in Christ at Lexington United Methodist Church! You are a community of great faith and hope, and I continue to enjoy being with you all! God has blessed our church in many ways, and many great things have been accomplished in just the past month. Our District Superintendent hosted a set-up meeting for our upcoming Charge Conference. At the meeting I learned that the Lexington United Methodist Church Charge Conference for 2026 will occur on Sunday, 18 October at 3:00pm in our church sanctuary. To prepare for that, your church committees will be meeting throughout the coming months.

August blessed us with a wonderful Youth-Led service on Sunday, 2 August, which delighted all who participated in the services. In August we were also blessed with a lively BBQ and Bingo night along with a bake sale, which was very well attended, and a joy to behold.

We shared Holy Communion service together this month also, and attendance continues picking up at our services.

We are excited about our Ecumenical Service coming up on 27 September at 5:00 pm at the Icehouse Amphitheater. We are so looking forward to our "Magic on Church Street" Christmas Festival on 21 and 22 November 2026 also at the Icehouse Amphitheater. Plans are in the works for even more church activities, so we look forward to seeing what the Lord is bringing us. I'm grateful for the volunteers in the church who are doing so much as the hands and feet of Jesus. May God continue to bless you with as a vibrant congregation full of willing volunteers, with great outreach programs, and generous hearts for all of God's people.

God bless you all,

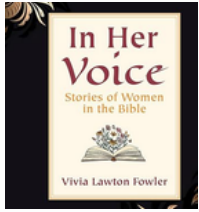

Mack McPowell

For those who don't know Dr. Vivia Fowler, she and her family are former members of Lexington UMC. We were fortunate to have her share her biblical knowledge on more than one occasion.

The Reverend Dr. Vivia Lawton Fowler has served two United Methodist women's colleges as professor of religion, provost, and president. A member of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, Dr. Fowler currently is pastor at Epworth UMC, Jame Island. *In light of the cyclospora outbreak we will be postponing a lettuce based salad bar for the near future. However, it will be replaced by a "cold bar". This will include things like assorted fruits/melons, slaws, cold salads (ie. potato/vegetable/pasta salads), etc. Once things clear up a little we will return to our normal salad bar. It is my responsibility to keep you all from getting sick and I take that very seriously. Thank you for your understanding.-

- Volunteers to help Laura with the children in Sunday School, Nursery, KidsWay are needed. See the links on page 9.
- Magic on Church Street needs a ton of volunteers to help over the two days. Sign-ups begins in September.
- The Lexington Reaches Everyone visitation group is looking for volunteers. If you have a heart for new members and homebound, please contact Sherri Cato.

Are you attending?

Are you present on Sunday mornings, if you are able?

Have you found a Sunday School home at 10:00am? There are 4 adult classes that meet downstairs in the Ministry Center--in 003, 005 ("younger" class) 007, and 009. There is a senior adult class that meets in Asbury Hall and a class that meets in 154/5. Visit one of these classes and find your church school home.

If you have children and/or youth, it's time to bring them to Sunday School to hear the Word, and to fellowship with children in a Christian environment.

Growing

if you give, serve, attend then it stands to reason that you will grow deeper in your walk with God. You will want to discover ways that you can deepen your faith journey. We are never too old to give, serve, learn and grow.

Sunday Night Adult Volunteers Needed

It's that time again where we need help for our Sunday Nights! Below is the link for the entire fall semester. Most nights we ask that the adults help provide the snack for the youth group (plan for 25 to 30 students). Don't want to provide a snack? That's fine too, we will work with you, and some nights it's built in that the church provides the snack, so sign-up for one of those!

If every family would just take one sign up, then most families would only have to do 1 to 2 Sunday nights for the entire School year! But some nights I do need multiple volunteers, which is noted on the sign-up! So please check it out and sign up to volunteer your time! Thank you for volunteering your time to make sure we meet Safe Sanctuary standards here at our church.
